Litter picking - we want to get into the habit of it every morning so if you're rota'd on the till first thing and not needed yet, please have a go - the front garden and trolley park is usually where litter gathers. The picking tool is hanging in store by main entrance.

Baskets in Porch - while the seed display is in the porch, the baskets need to be put a bit further down in front of the green wall - this is a slope so please put the brakes on!! (not all basket holders have brakes so make sure you put ones out that do)

Healthy Start old paper vouchers - continue to be vigilant in checking the use by dates on all old vouchers. Tell customers they should be able to swap them for new ones if they have any left.

Time for our biennial customer survey again this summer. Asher is going to do the survey again and flex his statistical skills. He will be here for the month of June and will present the findings to members at training July 14th. :)

Vegetable shopping at the unique and always amazing Unicorn vegan store in Manchester and a woman was querying the purple cauliflower. She was reassured with a gentle shrug that it was a great cauliflower and being purple was it just doing its own thing....

When weighing leeks and rhubarb at the till please make sure they aren't touching the perspex screen as this will take off some of the weight. Weighing them individually often helps. Thanks!
